SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 20, 1994, the CIT in Torrington Company v. United States, Slip Op. 93-168, remanded the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on antifriction bearings (other than tapered roller bearings) and parts thereof from Germany to the Department to: (1) Recalculate the amount of the tax adjustment that was made to the United States price; (2) treat certain of SKF GmbH's (SKF) discounts as indirect expenses unless the manner in which they were reported met the standard for treatment as direct expenses; (3) remove discounts paid on out-of-scope merchandise from SKF's home market discount adjustment, or, if not possible, disallow the adjustment; (4) treat FAG's currency hedging as an indirect selling expense; and (5) correct certain ministerial errors. The Department submitted its results of redetermination on remand to the court on January 6, 1994. On March 4, 1994, in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 94-38, the CIT again remanded the case for the Department to conform its treatment of pre-sale freight with the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (the Federal Circuit) in Ad Hoc Committee of AZ-NM-TX-FL Producers of Grey Portland Cement v. United States, 13 F.3d 398 (Fed. Cir. 1994). On May 24, 1994, in Torrington v. United States, Slip Op. 94-84, the CIT further instructed the Department to correct certain ministerial errors present in its earlier redetermination on remand. The Department submitted its redetermination issued pursuant to these opinions on June 23, 1994. On October 21, 1994, in Torrington, the CIT affirmed the Department's results of remand and entered final judgment on all issues.

In its decision in Timken Co. v. United States, 893 F.2d 337 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (Timken), the Federal Circuit held that, pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1516a(e), the Department must publish a notice of a court decision which is not "in harmony" with a Department determination, and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a "conclusive" court decision.
